

A Note From Rev. Deborah Kapp...

Like my grandmother before me, I can be a world class worrier. I can worry about what has already happened. I can worry about what might happen. And, I can worry about why someone else seems to have better stuff or better opportunities than I do. I know that I should grow out of these tendencies, but the good Lord and I are still working on my spiritual maturity, or lack thereof, which may be why Psalm 37 has caught my imagination.

"Do not fret," says the psalmist. Three times in the first 8 verses the psalmist repeats this admonition against the worry rooted in envy. Instead of fretting the psalmist suggests that we tend steadily to our own business, delight in God, and put our trust and hope in God's goodness. Then the psalmist makes a surprising statement in verse 11: "The meek shall inherit the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity." (NRSV) Another translation says, "The weak shall inherit the land, they will enjoy a surplus of peace." (CEB)

Two things surprise me about verse 11. The first is that Jesus quotes it in the Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5:3) and also alludes to it in the section about not worrying (Mt. 6:25ff). I have never before made the connection between this beloved teaching of Jesus and Psalm 37. The second thing that surprises me about verse 11 is that it promises peace of mind, which is something I would dearly like to achieve.

The psalmist writes about peace as a byproduct of righteous living. Give up worrying about other people's prosperity, says the psalmist. Do good, be generous and wise, trust God, and you will have peace, an abundance of peace. Now this is not a formula, it is no guarantee. But it is a witness. It is the witness of this psalmist, and countless other people of faith who have discovered, in their own complicated lives, that somehow in that intersection where human faithfulness and God's grace meet each other, deep peace can be found. There, as St. Augustine says in a meditation about this psalm, "Peace shall be thy gold. Peace shall be thy silver. Peace shall be thy lands. Peace shall be thy life, thy God peace. Peace shall be to thee whatever thou dost desire." May each of us enjoy such a blessing.

Clergy Renewal Program Update

Many of you know our senior pastors are on a Clergy Renewal from June through August. The Lilly Foundation grant Knox received is allowing them to travel, to study, to reflect and to rejuvenate. We have been blessed with Rev. Deborah Kapp who also has been leading worship. Knox has always grown and been strengthened through the gift and ministry of prayer where any renewal begins and is fueled by prayer. On June 2 we held our first prayer service. We prayed for the Robertses and Deborah, for the church leaders and the entire congregation. Our final prayer service will on July 14, outdoors, and look for announcement of time and place.

Have you been following the blog of the Robertses on the church website? On the main page there is a spot entitled: Renewal - Follow Clint and Deb. Once you click on that "button" you have several choices. There are weekly devotions to read where a group of dedicated writers have been working to provide you with thoughts and inspiration to help support Knox while the Robertses are gone. There is historical and geographical information for the upcoming week to tell you what is planned as the Robertses travel. There is a spot to learn more about the guest speakers/worship assistants who will be here this summer, many having gone through the youth program right here at Knox and includes Lara Musser (June 16), Justin Van Blaricom (June 30), Jenny Hubbard (July 14), Je Lee (July 21), and Brian Tanck (August 11).

Finally, there is a blog where Clint and Deb will highlight some of their favorite sights and thoughts as they experience their journey. We thought we would share a few sentences from a recent blog post so that you can get a flavor of what is available for you each week:

Leaving Naperville was quite the experience of 'getting out of Dodge'-so many details and worries and good-byes. Never quite enough time for every hoped for last thing. What wisdom to begin with a tour as someone else's charge: on the bus, off the bus, "Follow me please". And follow we have. We have followed our learned, young and proud guide through the bustling streets of Istanbul to the shores of the Aegean Sea.

Istanbul is a centuries old center of Christendom and Islam. Here the Nicene Creed gave us form and faith and guidance under Constantine. Here today, is a center of contemporary somewhat secular Muslim life. Mosques and Basilicas claim their place in a history which is as much present as it is past. The churches of Revelation, of John and Paul, are calling these Midwestern pilgrims to further exploration.

We have travelled from the Bosphorus and the Sea of Marmara (marble) along the Dardanelles to Gallipolis's Anzac Cove and the Aegean Sea. Today we begin our tour of Ephesus. It is a grand tourist destination and at least 5 miles in from its original shore in the days of Paul and John. We arrive at our final Turkish destination both excited and sad. So much to see in the most restored ancient site of this remarkable land and so much history to hear and make sense of. In our next installment we will say more about our experience of visiting the wonders and relics and churches of our forebears in the faith.

Missions at Knox

Thank you from the Mission Council!

Mission Council would like to thank the Knox congregation for its leadership giving to One Great Hour of Sharing. As one of the top 100 congregational donors to the Offering, you set the standard for participation and undergird the vital work of three ministries very dear to the Presbyterian Mission Agency's heart - The Presbyterian Hunger Program, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, and Self-Development of People.

Thanks for another good TPC Year!

We are grateful to you, the wonderful people of Knox, for preparing and serving meals to the members of our mission sponsored TPC (Teen Parent Connection) group. It was another successful year for teen age participants (both moms and dads) and their young families who enjoyed meals together along with group discussions and educational programs. The number of participants has been consistently good due to the hospitality of our congregation! Many organizations and individuals have contributed their time, food and love to these young people each Tuesday evening and we wish to give a HUGE THANKS to all of you. We are also sincerely grateful for the support and guidance of Pastor Cindy, The Mission Council, Dick Wheeler and his staff, and our helpful office personnel.

There is now a team of four hosts who take turns on Tuesdays assisting in setting up the meals and serving when needed. Our team members are: Barb Ebling, Dotty Mobley, Heidi Paulius and Bonnie Olson. We will be resuming programming in the fall and hope we can count on your continued support by signing up to serve a meal or two.

Thanks again!
Barb, Dotty, Heidi and Bonnie

Thank You for Supporting GO AND SERVE 2013, FAITH+WORKS

The Youth Program would like to thank our Knox family for supporting Go and Serve by bringing their cars to be washed. We made $1150 at the car wash!!

The 141 members of this year's Go and Serve team would like to thank the Knox community for its incredible support. Your prayers and financial contributions made the trip to Alma, MI area possible. Thank you to all who baked cookies: to Brent Mathison for donating lunch meat and cheese; To Barb Barhamand for her donation of Gatorade and water bottles; Bob Ellig and Bluco for donating building supplies. A special thanks to the Knox Sunday School classes for making some of the nightly gifts that we all received!! We appreciate all the volunteers who loaded and unloaded the tool truck and then stored all the tools and equipment. Thank you to all the folks who picked up, delivered, and returned our fleet of 13 vans, and for those who donated the first tank of gas! To the Knox office staff, we are thankful for the behind the scenes work you do before the trip! Thanks again for supporting our Pasta Dinner way back in February, our kick-off event for the year.

We enjoyed our stay at Alma College. They were such appreciative hosts, and were so helpful with all the details of our stay. We worked on many different projects, and our lives are richer for having had the opportunity to serve these families that soon became friends. This group of youth demonstrated their faith by the works they performed for the community of Alma. Our trip would not have been possible without the love and prayers of our Knox family.

Dear Knox Family,

I don't even know where to begin to express my gratitude for all of the kind words & well wishes we received when leaving Naperville. What a hard decision it was to make because I wanted to bring our Knox family with us, but we decided to move to the Kansas City area to be closer to family and Dick's corporate office in Lenexa. Leaving all of you behind was very hard on us, especially me, because you have been our "family" for 23 years. This new chapter in our lives will be an adventure with plans on seeing all of you again. This isn't good-bye ~ it's "see you later" as we will return to visit. Thank you, Knox, for always being there for us!
God's blessings to you all!

Love,
Dick & Beth Ryser
