

Lenten Offerings – a letter from Rev Deb

"Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us." - 1 John 4: 11-12

Dear Friends,

Here we are knee deep in snow, frigid temps and Lent once again! Did you give anything up in a sacrificial way for the sake of spiritual or physical well-being? Did you take anything on as a spiritual offering or discipline? I know, these are the questions we love to hate or hate to love.

What most of us would appreciate hearing is, "How about an all-expense paid trip to the Bahamas?! Tomorrow soon enough?"

Here is another way to look at the Lenten season. It has a beginning and an end. It concludes joyously with the celebration of Easter. When we get to Easter morn, Daylight Savings time has already begun and we are so much closer to spring busting out all over!! What if we thought of this season as a time ripe with possibilities? A time bursting with invitation? A time of harvesting offerings to God? Like the long winter, we endure and march onward....but what if we didn't think of it that way?

I'd like to suggest that our Lenten offerings to the Savior take the form of invitations; invitations sprinkled and scattered like seeds. These seeds may take hold and become blossoms in remarkable ways. As we reflect upon Jesus call and his invitation to follow, why not invite others to experience his love and mercy?

What if the most important thing you did for someone was to invite them and possibly connect them to the Vine whose strength sustains all the branches? An event, a worship service, a meal, a service of healing, the Holy week prayer vigil, a family serving opportunity...on it goes.....What if your humble invitation was the beginning of Christ transforming their lives?

Instead of belaboring the tragic news and all that scares us silly; instead of beguiling others with the latest, greatest fashions to buy or restaurants to try, let's make invitations our offerings to God and to others, in a world and a season crying for rebirth and renewal. Seedtime and blossom may surprise you. Gathering and Harvest time may show us all once again what is possible in Christ!

Blessings on the journey,
Deb

The Season of Lent

Facing Your FEARS

Together we will explore God's guidance.

"There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love." - 1 John 4:18

The Lenten season kicked off with the family friendly Ash Wednesday service. The worship experience offered our children and youth a meaningful way to understand the meaning of this day in the life of the Church. The Choir Cantata, entitled, "Covenant of Grace" was offered the first Sunday in Lent and was a beautiful way to address our fears which are covered in God's grace.

We go forward to examine the ways God equips us to face our fears with grace and strength. As part of our Lenten reflection, we will invite the congregation to place their fears and worries on a cross in the sanctuary, As we take our concerns to the cross of Christ, written on small pieces of paper, the cross will take shape before our eyes.

On the opposite wall we will build the scroll of good news with hands of hope. Cut out hands in different colors and sizes will be available to write upon them, our experiences and prayers of hope. These two visuals will remind us all season of Christ sacrificial love which carries our fears and transforms our challenges into renewed hope.

Easter Day we will celebrate our new life in Christ as the sanctuary itself will be transformed into a garden of Spring beauty and color!

Lenten Service of Healing and Remembrance

Tuesday, March 10, 7:30 pm

A service of prayer, reflection, scripture and music which speaks to the spirit of God's presence and healing strength in our lives. Life brings disappointments, loss, illness, uncertainty and more, but when we gather together in the strong name of Jesus, the Christ, who is our Great Physician, we find renewed hope and healing power for life.

Together we remember God's promises to us in Christ and through prayer, we are buoyed for the challenges in our lives. There will be opportunities for personal prayer with pastors and Stephen Ministers and time for quiet reflection.

Easter 24 Hour Prayer Vigil

The prayer vigil begins after the noon Maundy Thursday service on Thursday, April 2 in the Chapel and concludes with the Good Friday evening service on Friday, April 3 at 7:30 pm. Please sign up for a 30 minute time period in the Commons.

Easter Sunday Sunrise Service

The Sunrise Service will begin at 6:30 am at Veterans Park, 303 E. Gartner Road. Please bring your own lawn chairs for seating. Rev. Robert Thomas Quiring and Rev. Cindy Karis will co-lead the worship and communion will be celebrated. Refreshments will be served!

Children's Easter Choir

Yes, it's that time of year to plan rehearsals for our Children's Easter Choir! This choir is open to ALL children K-5th grade. You do not have to be a part of the Wednesday evening children's programming.

Rehearsals are:

March 15 - 11:30 – 12:00

March 22 - 11:30 – 12:00

March 29 - 10:00 – 10:20 (not after the 10:30 worship service because of the Easter Egg Hunt!)

I will hand out a practice CD and lyrics at the first rehearsal.

The worship services on Easter morning (April 5) at Knox will be 9:00 and 11:00. The Children's Choir will sing for both services but you don't have to participate both times. If you can give me an idea which one your child would be attending, that would be helpful.

Thank you so much. I look forward to a large and joyful choir!

Star Stories 2015 Continue

Resources for study were available all last month in the Commons. We hope you are praying for your star person or persons and learning about the scriptures associated with your star word.

Here's a great idea!

One of our Knox Family Fellowship Groups is meeting each month to discuss their words and scriptural meanings. This way their star words are becoming an opportunity of study for all of them.

This Month's Star Story by Diana Newby

I had an amazing unexpected God moment and star story all wrapped together during Advent this year. The unexpected event sent me home to look all over the house for my star and I found it! Wow-it was in sync with our Advent series and my star experience.

Some things happen for a reason or as we say it was "beshert" (fated) My star word was 'Trusted'. It was a feeling I needed even beyond my realizing it. I took a walk with Mandy, our dog on a cold December night. My spirits were low because the time frame reminded me of my father's decline and the loss of both of my parents.

I heard a voice behind me admiring Mandy's little sweater and asking to pet my dog. Slow to respond, the voice asked again and I turned around. I met a lovely woman who was pleased to meet Mandy and introduce her to her friends. They were women who lived in a Little Friends home for challenged adults in our neighborhood. I never knew it was there until this chance meeting.

Their genuine enthusiasm and smiles brightened my cold evening and Mandy loved the attention. She and I offered them some moments of giggles and chatter. It was so unexpected for all of us to meet and yet we were messengers to one another. It restored my spirits and my sense of God's presence. God also trusts us to be messengers of care to others.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding..." Proverbs 3: 5

Where is God Calling Knox?

Long Range Planning Congregation Feedback Needed!

The Long Range Planning Team has been hard at work and meeting regularly since October 2013. We have completed the first two phases of our analysis trying to answer the questions – “Who are we?” and “Who is our neighbor?” We have moved into our third and final phase and are considering the forward looking question “What is God calling us to be and do at Knox?” We shared some of our thoughts at the recent session retreat and we are seeking your input as well.

We would love to hear your thoughts on where you think God is calling Knox for the next 10 years. We will be holding a Congregation Feedback Session the evening of Sunday, March 15 at 7:30 pm. The purpose of this informal session is to provide our initial ideas on the goals and priorities for Knox, get you feedback on these, and hear you dreams and ideas for the future of Knox. We are very excited about where God is calling us and want to make sure all voices are heard. So please put this important session on your calendars. Thanks! If you have any questions or comments please contact Deb Beaird or Rev. Eric Heinekamp.
