

A LETTER FROM REV DEB & CLINTON

Dear Friends,

Psalms 139 perfectly portrays the 3 elements of our study: praise, passion and power. This Psalm of David was meant to be sung in the congregation and led by the choir master. It was a way for all the singers to declare God's great power as Creator as well as God's passionate intimacy of being engaged in each of our lives. It is a testimony of praise stating that there is no height nor depth or condition that can separate us from our God. May this be a psalm of reassurance to you.

O Lord, you have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away. You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue,

O Lord, you know it completely. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.

Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there. If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast.

If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light around me become night," even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day, for darkness is as light to you.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my thoughts. See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalms 139: 1-12, 23-24

Keep reading those psalms!
Deb and Clinton

"Humanity after Catastrophe" - from the perspective of Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Speaker: Dr. Reggie Williams, McCormick Theological Seminary

What does it mean to be human after the atrocities committed by a civilized nation in the name of Nazism? What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus Christ? Come hear Dr. Reggie Williams, Professor of Christian Ethics at McCormick Theological Seminary address these and other issues from the perspective of Bonhoeffer's theology of political engagement.

Dr. Williams received his Ph.D. in Christian Ethics from Fuller Theological Seminary in 2011. He is the author of Bonhoeffer's Black Jesus: Harlem Renaissance Theology and an Ethic of Resistance (Baylor University Press, 2014) and recently wrote an article for The Christian Century entitled "Seeing Whiteness: Exercises in Understanding Race" (July 7, 2016).

This year participants from the Naperville community will be walking the CROP Hunger Walk on Sunday, October 16, starting at 1 pm at Grace UMC. We invite you to join the Knox Team and walk 1K or 5K. Last year 17 walkers from Knox raised $3,820. Walkers and donors are needed to help Make Hunger History and Fight Poverty. All the funds raised will go to families in need, here in our own community, nationally and world-wide. Just as in 2015, participants have the opportunity to pack meals after the walk. The goal is to pack 250 meals which will be donated to Loaves and Fishes CARES Program. You can pick up your Walker Envelope and other material starting Sunday, September 25 and on October 2 and 9 at the CROP Hunger Walk counter in the Commons. Let's get a Knox Team together!!.

Another way you can support the local CROP Hunger Walk is by going to Chipotle (Naperville-south) on Wednesday, October 5, between 5-8 pm. Before you pay, please indicate that you are supporting the CROP Hunger Walk by showing the voucher or by simply telling the cashier. 50% of all the proceeds will be donated to CROP Hunger Walk. Vouchers can be picked up at the CROP counter starting September 25.

Route 59 Suite 108 in Naperville on Wednesday, October 5th between 5:00pm and 8:00pm. ## Cookie Walk Is Coming – Bakers Needed!

While leaves are changing and it is getting cooler, the Knox Deacons are busy preparing for the second annual Cookie Walk which will be held on Saturday, December 10 from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM in Lehman Hall.

The Knox Cookie Walk offers a huge assortment of homemade fancy cookies and candies, hostess trays, stocking stuffers and gift tins to shoppers. There are other cookie walks in Naperville, but the Knox cookie walk is one of the last cookie walks before Christmas. Therefore Knox parishioners and others in the community have the opportunity to get the freshest cookies for their holiday gatherings from Knox. Right now the Knox Deacons are seeking bakers for Cookie Walk. If you have a “white” thumb and enjoy making holiday cookies for a great cause, please contact Doris Walker at 630-605-6973 or e-mail Doris at elmhurstgrad@yahoo.com. Sign-up will also be available after Sunday church services in the coming weeks.

All proceeds from Cookie Walk fund the Knox Deacons’ ministry to the families of Knox.

Box Tops for Education

Campbell will no longer accept Labels for Education. However, we will continue to collect pop-top tabs, Box Tops for Education and cancelled stamps. Cancelled stamps should be trimmed with a small border approximately ¼” - 1/3” so they will be valuable to collectors. Stamps should not be removed from the paper. Please place items in the basket located on the mission table near Lehman Hall.

Christmas Card Event for Companions Journeying Together

1. What is it? We're inviting women from many churches in Naperville to join us here at Knox to bring hope to people in prison this Christmas! Bring a friend with you!
2. When is it? It's on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2, 2016, from 12:30 - 3:30 pm in Fellowship Hall & coffee bar area
3. What will you do? You will be addressing, signing, or stamping Christmas cards to be sent to prisoners in IL and beyond
4. How can you help? This year Companions has already received plenty of Christmas cards, but the need for stamps is great! Jana Minor, founder, said, "Don't spend your money on cards, please spend it on STAMPS this year and bring them with you!" [If you received free cards in the mail, you can still donate those.]

5. Do you have extra Christmas wrapping paper or ribbon? If so, bring it along to donate to CJT. They are wrapping gifts as a fundraiser, and can use your donations!

6. What's in it for you? Free coffee and treats! ☺ AND, Jana Minor, will share how these cards make a difference in prisoner's lives and will talk about other programs and the concept of restorative justice.

7. What if I can't come and want to donate STAMPS or Christmas paper & ribbon? Please bring it to the Mission Table to the right of the coffee bar and put it in the Big Christmas Box!
